Dear Mr. Weisberg: January 10, 1974

Since I don't have, and perhaps will never have the ultimate answer, I must concede your theory as a possibility.

However, why the FBI would have wanted to harass me in its own interest I cannot imagine. I had no problem, as far as I know, with the FBI, but only with the White House. And the White House, as far as I can see, had nothing to gain from an overt investigation.

So we are left with theories.

Yours,

Daniel Schorr
